Mayors office,
Boston, Nov. 3. 1846.

My Dear Sir,

I am directed by a vote of the boards of Aldermen, to propose to the Selectmen of the town of Brookline, that the perambulation of the lines between us, should take place, on Wednesday, the 25th inst. We propose meeting the Selectmen of Dorchester at 10 the Aldermen of Roxbury at 11. and will meet you at half past 12. at any point that you may designate as most convenient for the purpose of commencing

I am very respectfully

Josiah Quincy 2d
Mayor.

Letter from
J. Lucy Lee Mayor
Nov. 1846